

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Kelli Sacher is a visual artist living in Boston, MA. She graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Graphic Design from Simmons College, where she was first introduced to printmaking. Her early work history includes design positions in magazine publishing, corporate marketing, and identity for Polaroid Corporation. Kelli served as a Gallery Instructor for the Museum of Fine Arts Boston for 14 years, and recommitted to her art practice in 2025. She is a current studio member at Shepherd & Maudsleigh Studios in Newton, MA, where she continues to expand her artistic practice. Kelli is also a member of the Cambridge and Concord Art Associations.

ARTIST CV

Group Shows

Small Art, Big Party: A Celebrations of the Artists Among Us, Art Wellesley, Lulu Wang Center at Wellesley College, November 2024

Awake, Rise, Act: Contemporary BroadSides, Wayside Tavern, Concord, MA 2024

Juried and Invitational Shows

Summer Members Exhibit, presented by the Cambridge Art Association: University Place Gallery, July 9–September 4, 2026

Art and Healing, Mosesian Center for the Arts, Watertown, MA, March–May 2026

Awards

Boston Book Builders Scholarship Recipient, 1993